LOS ANGELES, CA (January 15, 2025)— Casting has been announced for Center Theatre Group’s world premiere of Fake It Until You Make It, by Larissa FastHorse, the first Native American playwright to be featured at the Mark Taper Forum. Fake It Until You Make It will be directed by Michael John Garcés. It is a co-production with Arena Stage, Washington D.C.

The production will run January 29 to March 9, 2025 (press opening February 5) at the Mark Taper Forum, as the third offering of Center Theatre Group’s One CTG. One LA. Season, previously announced by Artistic Director Snehal Desai, Managing Director/CEO Meghan Pressman, and Producing Director Douglas C. Baker.

The cast at the Mark Taper Forum will be Noah Bean (David Mamet’s Romance), Eric Stanton Betts (Holiday Down Under), Julie Bowen (Modern Family) Tonantzin Carmelo (NBC La Brea), Brandon Delsid (Amazon Prime This is Me ... Now), and Dakota Ray Hebert (Marvel’s Echo).

The production then transfers to the Kreeger Theater at Arena Stage, Washington D.C. April 3 to May 4, 2025 where the cast will be Noah Bean (David Mamet’s Romance), Eric Stanton Betts (Holiday Down Under), Amy Brenneman (NYPD Blue, Judging Amy, Private Practice, The Leftovers), Tonantzin Carmelo (NBC La Brea), Brandon Delsid (Amazon Prime This is Me . . . Now), and Dakota Ray Hebert (Marvel's Echo).

A bold world premiere comedy from Los Angeles-based playwright, Larissa FastHorse, about being whoever you want to be, even when it's not who you are. In her uproarious new comedy, a collision of friends and foes within the non-profit sector sets the stage for a whirlwind of competition, chaos, and comedic revelation.

Meet Wynona, the Native American proprietor of N.O.B.U.S.H., and River, her white counterpart at Indigenous Nations Soaring. Their escalating rivalry ensnares colleagues and bystanders, leading to the unraveling of secrets that highlight the absurdities of ambition and authenticity. Amidst the laughter, genuine connections form, emphasizing the value of unexpected paths to success. Fake It Until You Make It takes an absurd look at what defines who we are, and the lengths some people will go through to change it.

"After re-opening the Mark Taper Forum in the fall, we are excited to partner with our friends at Arena Stage and get back to what the Taper has been celebrated for over the course of its history—and that's by continuing to be the home for bold world premiere productions," said Snehal Desai, CTG's Artistic Director. "I am particularly thrilled that LA's own Larissa FastHorse and her new comedy, Fake It Until You Make It, will be making its premiere at CTG this season. We are already laughing out loud in the rehearsal room with this incredible cast as they bring this fantastic and hilarious play to life and we can't wait to share it with all of you."

"Arena Stage is delighted to collaborate with Center Theatre Group on this hijinks-filled world-premiere comedy, featuring a fierce and funny ensemble that will rollick audiences from coast to coast," said Arena Stage Artistic Director Hana S. Sharif. "Larissa FastHorse's writing exposes the fragile yet ruthless underbelly of the nonprofit sector, where coworking and culture clash. In a town that runs on identity politics, Larissa dares to unmask us all."

Fake It Until You Make It is an Edgerton Foundation Commission that was awarded to Center Theatre Group. The play was originally commissioned by Center Theatre Group.

2024/25 Season programming at the Mark Taper Forum is made possible through the generous support of the S. Mark Taper Foundation. Additional season support is provided by Perenchio Foundation.
